Jerry Anthony Tyler entered this earthly life on December 25, 1966, and transitioned to be with the Almighty Lord on March 25, 2024. He was born to the late Jerry Mac Tyler and Gloria Jean Tyler.

Influenced by his father's professional career in music, Jerry expressed his love for music through dancing and DJing. Whether his dance moves stole the show or the music he played moved the crowd, he bonded and touched many hearts through music. To him, every day was an opportunity to motivate the world. His warm words and positive presence shed light on any dark situation. He was an unconditional lifter.

When he saw you, he always asked how your family and you were doing. He cared, listened, and influenced all walks of life.

Jerry was a proud family man. He loved and bragged about his sons every chance he got. He expressed his love for them daily and became their personal compass when they needed direction. His legendary influence has been woven into every fabric of his family and friends.

Jerry is survived by his sons, Marlon, Markeem (Dejonshe), Maraunreanio, and Tamerus Tyler; grandchildren, Kamari, Brooklyn, DeCorrion, Nature, Marlon Jr., and Bronix Tyler; step -mother, Cynthia Tyler; step -brother, Clifford Darden and family; step -sister, Nicole Darden and family; cousins, Laverne Jernigan, Faye Darden, Rita Sanford, Jackie Burns, Ricky Darden, James Darden, Eddie Darden, Gary Darden, and Amy Jernigan; the entire Stone family and friends.
