ARRANGEMENTS: VIEWING AND VISITATION, JANUARY 24, 2024, 12 PM-1 PM WITH FUNERAL SERVICE TO FOLLOW AT 1PM AT W.D. CROWDER FUNERAL HOME CHAPEL 1800 JOHN L PATTERSON STREET, SPRINGFIELD, TENNESSEE 37172, INTERMENT IN RESTLAWN MEMORIAL GARDEN.

On January 14, 2024, Bobbie Jean McGarnett transitioned peacefully with her loving family. Bobbie was born December 14, 1935, to the late Lucy Darden and the late Ewing Dowlen.

Bobbie professed a hope in Jesus Christ in the year 1993 at the First SDA Church in Springfield, TN. She attended church in Springfield, Hopkinsville, KY and Athens, GA. She enjoyed a good sermon as well as some good gospel music. Bobbie truly loved the Lord.

Bobbie was married to Charles E. McGarnett, Sr. and to that union five children were born. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and mother-in-law. Bobbie shared many meals with friends and family, she also shared her home if someone needed a place to stay. She was very giving and what she gave it was from her heart.

Bobbie worked at Electrolux for several years, she retired in the 1990's. After her retirement she did babysitting in her home, where some of the children became like family.

Bobbie is preceded death by husband, Charles E. McGarnett, Sr.; son, Daryel McGarnett, Sr.; daughter Nora M. Williams; sisters, Eddie M. Washington, and Dorothy Sue Babbs.

Bobbie leaves to cherish her precious memories: two daughters, Virginia Matthews, and Hazel Lisenbee (Gary); one son, Charles E. McGarnett, Jr. (Sabrina). Grand-children, James Lunsford, Christopher Lunsford (Renee), Kevin Matthews, Daryel McGarnett, Jr., Fatisha McGarnett, Noresha Milan, Natash Williams, HaShara Lisenbee, Garreous Lisenbee, and Michelle Powell. A host of great-grandchildren; great-great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Frieda McGarnett; nieces, nephews and cousins; sister-in-law, Mary Holden; devoted friends and family, Gloria Lewis, Sandra Washington (niece) and Jesse Parham..
