On September 5, 2020 God saw that he needed an angel so he called Home one of his faithful Servants. Mark Edward Hardin was born to the late Clarence Hardin and Joan Mai Farmer Hardin on June 28, 1958.

He attended Robertson County schools and later obtained his higher education in Lapeer, Michigan. Mark, known to everyone as Ufray, was a man of many talents to include carpentry, a barber, and a portraitist. His voice was soulful as he loved to sing in the choir at Banks Chapel and could dance as hard as James Brown. Despite his illness, he always felt the need to help others and was adamant about making sure everyone around him was good. He was admired by many. The life of any party and the "favorite" Uncle that was sure to make you smile, cry or laugh uncontrollably. He will be missed but never forgotten.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Gerald "Jug Head" Hardin, sister, Felisa Faye Barbee and a daughter, Savannah "Pookie" Hardin.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his daughters, Markeeta "Bird" Hardin of Manama, Bahrain, Martreese Hardin (Brad), Ann Barbee, Denisha Woodard, Marmesha Woodard of Madison, TN, Markeisha Rickson of Dallas, TX, two step daughters, Melissa McKissick of Clarksville, TN and Tammy Woodard of Madison, TN; seven grandkids; devoted brothers, Kenneth Hardin (Joyce) of Nashville, TN, Stacey Hardin of Adams, TN and Terry Lee Hardin of Springfield, TN. An Angelic sister, Barbara Kendrick of Springfield, TN; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and relatives; lifelong friends, Tim "Greedy Man" Taylor, Forrest Holman and Judd Bullard.
