Timmy Lee Shannon was born on December 4, 1965 to Terry Lee Shannon and Patricia Lucille Gray Shannon. He departed this life on September 11, 2021.

He was a beautiful person in heart. God made him that way. He was educated in the Robertson County School System.

He accepted Christ as his Savior at the Church of God under the leadership of Elder Boyd Kinzer. Then under Pastor William D. Birdsong.

Timmy was employed by Martinrea Fabco in Springfield, Tennessee. Timmy always enjoyed playing dominos, and softball, which was his all-time love. We cannot forget to mention, in his prime, he would shoot your lights out on the basketball court. Anybody that knew Timmy, knew he was a die hard Dallas Cowboy Fan. He loved the kids, and he would gather the entire community, teaching them sports and the importance of sportsmanship. If you needed a shirt, he would give up the shirt off his back, because he genuinely loved people, and he never met a stranger. While his father was known as Mr. Pig, Timmy was better know as the DJ Weekend Pig. Same would even say he was a music and dance master. He was known to turn a party out. He will be deeply missed, and his love will carry on in all who knew him. He was loved, and a legend in his own way.

He is preceded in death by his grandmothers, Maxcine Shannon and Stella Dowlen; one niece, Lakeybra Nichole Hyde; three aunts, Joann Hudson, Mattie Hyde and Melinda (Penny) Shannon.

Timmy leaves to cherish his memories: father, Terry Shannon; mother, Patricia Lucille Gray Shannon; one sister, Stella (Bobby Lee) Northington; one brother, Travis Shannon; three nieces, Malla and Montricia Shannon, and Arielle Shannon; seven nephews, James Mantovis, P.J. Sedale, and Trenton Shannon, Kristopher Northington and Z`Amarion Gardner; aunts and uncle Pauline Hyde, Michael (Patricia) Gray, Mary Barbee, Elizabeth (Ed) Jones, David (Jenetta) Hyde, Clifford Hyde, Harold (Felicia) Hyde, and Barbara Lynn Hyde; devoted friends, Anthony Moore William Jones, Vernon Clemons and Spencer Trice; step-children, Whitney Quarrels and Josh Barrow; adopted Clemons family and a host of cousins, other family and friends.
