Quincy Donnell "Stank" Mitchell was born on September 11, 1969 to the late Goyquina Mitchell Payne.

Quincy was raised by his mother, the late Goyquina Mitchell Payne and Donnell Payne, who survives. He attended school in Robertson County, graduating with honors from Springfield High School, Class of 1987. He went on to further his education at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Tennessee and acquired a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. Quincy became a restaurant manager at Pizza Hut in September of 1992 where he met his devoted, loving wife of 25 ½ years. Quincy continued with the restaurant industry until 2007. On March 1, 2007, Quincy started a new chapter in his career at AT&T where he advanced as manager for the last thirteen years.

Quincy loved helping, teaching, developing, and training people to always do things right the first time. He always liked to have fun and was always silly with a good sense of humor.

Quincy and Shewanda met at Pizza Hut in Nashville, Tennessee and later wed on December 31, 1994 in Springfield, Tennessee where they purchased their home and raised their three sons, Dar'shon, De'ion and the late Carlos Mitchell, who preceded him in death. Quincy attended Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witness where he was baptized in the 2000's. Quincy was a God fearing man who trusted in Jehovah God (Proverbs 3:5) Quincy let the Bible direct and guide him on how to raise his family. He inculcated and instilled in them the importance of relying on Jehovah and putting him first. Family was important to him.

Quincy and Shewanda had their first grandchild in June 2019. He was a proud grandfather. He was "Q Dad" to Z'nyla and she was affectionately called "Shabooby" by him. He was a family man; He loved his family unconditionally. He was a devoted, loving father and husband, as well as an awesome provider. Quincy is the definition of a good man, husband, father, son, brother, nephew, son-in-law, friend, and cousin. The void that he left can never be filled. In addition to his mother, he was preceded in death by his son, Carlos Mitchell, and grandparents, J.C. Mitchell and Bertha Pope Mitchell.

Quincy's life ended July 22, 2020 at St. Thomas Hospital in Nashville, Tennessee. He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his loving and devoted wife of 25 ½ years, Shewanda Mitchell; sons, Dar,Shon Mitchell, and De'ion Mitchell; granddaughter, Z'nyla Mitchell; father, Abram Payne; brother, Allen Payne; sister, Lasonya (Dontez) Brooks; aunts, Sherry A.
