Travis Eugene Dowlen was born November 28, 1983, in Springfield, Tennessee to Linda Hines and the late Michael Dowlen. God called him home for his eternal rest on Monday, October 3, 2022.

Travis received his education at Springfield High School, graduating with the Class of 2002.

He was married to Evelyn Harris and within this union they joined together a family of three sons and one stepdaughter.

Travis was a member of the St. James Missionary Baptist Church. He worked many years at Electrolux.

Travis was a great son, brother and father. He loved spending time with his family and friends. He was devoted to providing and taking care of his family. He worked hard and played hard. He liked to camp, grill and cook.

He was preceded in death by his father, Michael Dowlen and brother, Eric Kinta Hines.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Linda Hines; three sons, Rashad, Travis Jr. and Kendrick Dowlen; stepdaughter, Halo Harris; sister, Te'erra Dowlen; brothers, Jeffery Dowlen and Brandon McCarley; mother-in-law, Demetra Harris; nephews, Qwentae Buck, Qeshon and Seon Cromwell, Jeffery Dowlen Jr., and Tyson Dowlen; nieces, Andrea, Aaliyah, Gracelynn, Laylh and Augustine Dowlen; several devoted friends, LaDaverick Suggs, Jamal Graves, Reggie Malvo, Tony Dowlen, Marcus Johnson and Michael Wayne; his second mom, Melody Dioiorio; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
