Rickey Dwayne Stone was born June 13, 1954, to the late Mr. James Stone and Mrs. Agnes Morton. He was baptized at an early age at First Missionary Baptist Church, under Pastor Walter J. Speed Sr.

He attended Bransford Elementary and Bransford High School where he played football under Legendary coach Robert "Bill" Farmer. Rickey graduated from Springfield High School in 1972.

Rickey, at an early age developed a love for cars and speed. He was taken under the wings of Rev. Joseph Miles and Tony "Mad Dog" Dowlen where he learned to build engines and ride motorcycles. He along with friends Bruce Elliott, Freddie Luster, Rickey Barbee, James "Big Bird" McKissick, the late Robert Earl Scott, and a few others formed a motorcycle club in Springfield during the 70's. This gave younger guys and girls something to marvel at and see that through a little true grit and determination you can do what you choose to, if you apply yourself.

He is proceeded in death by Sister Patricia "Sunshine" Stone (Louisville, KY) and Grandson Regis "Yoshi" Harris (Hope Mills, NC).

He leaves to cherish his life His children: Crystal Jackson (Calvin), Marcus Harris (Renee), Tiffany Hyde, Terrence Hyde (Tristica), Decius Harris, Najah Harris, and Shanta Taylor; twenty five grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren Sisters Shirley Faye Smith (Peter) San Diego, Ca, Peggy Turner (Gary, IN), Brothers, Darrell B. Stone, Michael L. Morton (Wilhelmina), Jacob C. Morton III.. A niece, Nadine Stone, and nephew Lanford Stone, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Rickey is also survived by an extended family of close friends, and devoted caregiver Ms. Tara Lewis, Mr. Perry and Rhonda Pullum, Bruce Elliott, Freddie Luster, Rick Cammon, Dallas Miles, Alan Gardner, and Michael "Muddy Waters" Farmer.

Thank you Rickey for being a brother to all that you met. No sweeter man has GOD gifted us with. Rest Our brother, Rest Our friend, Rest Father of your children and grandchildren. Well Done! Well Done! Well Done Good and Faithful Servant.
