Arrangements for Jo Ann King: Public Viewing and Visitation, Friday, January 15, 2021 from 1-4 pm.

Jo Ann King was born August 3, 1942 in Robertson County, Tennessee to the late Jo King and Mattie Pearl Barbee King. She left this earthly home on January 5, 2021.

She was educated in the Robertson County School System. She attended Bransford High School. During her lifetime she served many people. She retired from the Kroger Company after many years of service. Jo Ann was known for her cooking and hospitality. She was known mostly for her famous chicken and dressing. She was the neighborhood mother to some and those that knew her called her "Jo" or "JoJo."

She was a very active member of First Baptist Church where she served on the Kitchen, First Aid Committee and the Usher Board. She later joined New Season Church until she went to NHC Nursing Home.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by six siblings, Virginia King, Robert King, James King, Vicki King, Pamela King and Rochelle King.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her sons, Christopher King, and Reginald King; her daughter, Kelly Sanders, all of Springfield, TN; her grandchildren, Kelandra Cross of Springfield, TN, Kiara Cartwright of Gallatin, TN, and Reg'Shanell King of Nashville, TN; one great-grandchild, Zion Cross of Springfield; one sister, Patsy King of Springfield, TN; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
