Roderick Sentell Mabone was born August 3, 1989 in Robertson County, Tennessee to the late George Mabone and Deborah Rochelle King-Mabone. He left his earthly home on February 16, 2021 with his loving sister, Denita Felts, by his side.

He was educated in the Robertson County School System where he was active in sports during his early years, including football. He attended Springfield High School.

Roderick was known for his fun-loving personality and kind heart. He was extremely polite and respectful. A very generous and kindhearted man that was loved by many and that loved his family, especially his children. People that knew him best called him "Rod" and knew how much he loved playing his video games.

He worked at Goodwill Industries for several years and attended South Haven Baptist Church in Springfield, Tennessee for many years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George Mabone and Deborah Rochelle King-Mabone.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories: his daughters, Karlecia Lynn Mabone and Nevaeh Sheree Mabone; siblings, Denita Felts, Jeremy Felts and Gwendolyn Mabone all of Nashville, TN, and Prentice Yates of Dallas, TX; aunt, Patsy King of Springfield, TN; nephew, De'Monte; nieces, Dehovonna and Diamond, one great nephew, EJ all of Nashville, TN; a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.
