Mareck N. Brown, aka "Maro," was born on June 20, 2000 at Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee. He went home to be with God on July 14, 2022. Mareck was preceded in death by father, Mark E. Brown of Los Angeles, CA. Grand -parents, William and Floretta Pulliam of Springfield, TN; Charles and Patricia Brown of Riverside, CA. Grandfathers, Foster C. Gooch of Nashville, TN and Earsley M. Vanleer of Dickson, TN. Aunt, Marcella James of Nashville, TN. Uncles, Charles E. Brown, II of Los Angeles, CA and Dr. Jimmy Gooch of Denver, CO.

Mareck lived in Lake Charles, LA and later moved back to his family hometown of Springfield, TN. He professed his love for God and was baptized at The Church of God in Russellville, KY under the late Pastor Edward Pulliam of Springfield, TN.

Mareck was a graduate of Springfield High School, Class of 2019. He was avid in sports, especially basketball. He played on the Springfield youth, middle school, and high school teams. The Philadelphia Eagles was his favorite professional football team as well as the Los Angeles Clippers for his favorite professional basketball team. As a little boy, with his contagious smile, he said, "I want to be a preacher and help others one day." Mareck had ambitions of becoming an entrepreneur as well. He loved to research various business plans to help him accomplish his entrepreneurial goals. Mareck was a hardworking young man. He loved everyone he encountered and was a jack of many trades, especially creating music.

Mareck is survived by his mother, Minta Brown (Rickey Scharckley); siblings, Mathieu Brown, Malcolm Brown (Olivia Leighton), Megan Brown, McKenzie Brown, De'Angelo Scharckley (Lakresha Patterson), Trent Patterson, Johnese Robertson (Mantrell), Diandre Scharckley and Dana Scharckley.
