On February 13, 2021 God called one of His angels home, Maria Shonsha Taylor Pacheco. Maria was born July 21, 1970 to Vera Leavell Taylor and the late John E. Taylor in Robertson County Tennessee. She attended Robertson County Schools with the Class o 1988. Maria professed a hope in Christ at an early age at the Church of God, and she later joined Community Baptist Church.

In 1992 Maria was united in Holy Matrimony to Jose B. Pacheco, and one beautiful child was born, Alexcz V. Pacheco Turnley from this union. Maria "Resha" loved the Lord, and was a faithful member of the church serving on the Usher Board. Resha" was a fighter and wouldn't let her sickness or anything get her down. "Resha," baby, no more pain, weary days or sleepless night, baby, It's all over. Take your rest.

She also loved working with the B.S.W. and the Springfield Children's Clinic. She had just started her new business, that was something that she put her whole heart into.

She was preceded in death by her father, John E. Taylor; grandparents, Elizabeth Farmer, George Leavell, Sr., Jesse Farmer, Gladys Taylor and L. C. Taylor.

Maria leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving and devoted daughter, Alexcz (Mantavious, Sr.) Turnley; her loving and devoted mother Vera Taylor; one step-daughter, Samira Pacheco of Springfield, TN; two step-sons, Marco and Jose Copeland of Texas; two step grandchildren, Mantavious, Jr and Montavious Turnley; three aunts, Mary Darden, Lillie Taylor of Springfield, TN, Jeanette Leavell of Madison, TN; one uncle Bobby R. Darden of Springfield, TN; two devoted cousins who grew up like sisters, Tracie and Jackie Leavell; Resha helped raise her cousins, Okatavian "Tay Tay" Moss who will truly miss her and Sierra Savage who she helped raise. "Resha" had a host of cousins who were very kind and devoted to her, they were there when she needed them. We can't leave out her second child, she was a great part of "Resha's life," Coco Chanel; two very special friends, Tara Lewis and James Flood and a host of many, many more devoted friends.
