Jessie Louise Isaac Terry was born April 23, 1941, in Tuskegee, Alabama, to the late Jessie Isaac of Tuskegee, AL and Aretha V. Nobbin (Coofer) of Springfield, TN. Jessie was baptized at the age of six at Mount Olive Baptist Church also located in Tuskegee, AL. She was re -baptized in the Name of Jesus in January 1970 at Faith Apostolic Church under the late Elder Harold Hines in Springfield, TN. She was called to preach and pastor in 1981 in Mound Bayou, Mississippi. She followed God's call to pastor later in life. She then pastored and founded New Birth Apostolic Church in August 2005.

Jessie was a super intelligent woman who lived her life to the fullest. She graduated from Bransford High School at the age of 16, then went full steam ahead into life! She then earned her Bachelors degree in Nursing from Tennessee State University while simultaneously raising three children. God blessed her and her children. For the majority of her working career, she worked as Director of Nursing in most of the health care facilities she was employed.

She was preceded in death by her father, Jesse Isaac of Tuskegee, AL; mother, Aretha V. Nobbin (Coofer); faithful husband, Pastor Robert Terry; brother, Charles N. Nobbin; grandsons, Torvis L. and Tevin Chatman; and great - grandson, Tylan Chatman.

She leaves to cherish her memory: children, Gregory S. Chatman (Stephanie), Milora Shay Chatman and Michael B. Chatman (LeCheryl); grandchildren, Terran Chatman, Kiara Gennae Chatman, and Derrion Chatman; niece, Seretha L. Nobbin; nephews, Christopher N. Nobbin, Christopher McLean (Bernadette) of Raeford, NC and Jason O. Nobbin of Bowling Green, KY; great -grand - children, Tyonna, Terrian, Terran Jr. and Azhani Chatman and a host of other family and friends.
