Obituary

LaKesha Nicole Crowder was a beloved daughter, granddaughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, church member and friend. Kesha was born on February 8, 1980 to Rhonda Faye Crowder in Nashville, TN.

She was raised by her mother and the late Robert Westmoreland whom she loved dearly.

On July 28, 2020, God called his angel Kesha home where she is now safe in his arms. Educated in the Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools, Kesha graduated from Pearl-Cohn High School in 1998. While at Pearl-Cohn, she was a flag girl with the marching band. She remained loyal to the Firebirds until her passing.

After graduating from high school, Kesha was employed at Baptist Hospital for many years. She was later employed at Market Strategies International. She was a research interviewer. On August 18, 1991, Kesha was baptized at Friendship Missionary Baptist Church where she grew up attending Sunday School. She once told her grandmother Shirley, "Granny, I don't worry about anything. I'm a child of God."

If you knew Kesha, you knew love. She loved everybody and loved hard. She had a wonderful sense of humor and was always concerned about others. Kesha had a sweet, loving spirit—one of a kind. She always thought of others more than herself. She posted regularly on Facebook and began each morning with: "Dear Lord, please give us the strength to make it through another day. We love you and need you. Amen!!!" Even though there were days when she did not feel well, she was not a complainer. She always said, "I'll be all right."

Loved ones preceding her in death are grandparents, Thomas Crowder and Shirley Crowder; great grandparents, Lula Bell Swett, Sherman Biddix, Sr., Reverend W. D. and Mrs. Lebertha Crowder.

Kesha leaves to cherish her memories, devoted mother, Rhonda Crowder; sister and best friend, Chelsea Westmoreland; uncles, Edward Crowder, Nathan (Sheree) Crowder and Shawn Hobson; aunt, Jeana (Paul) Chase; niece, Faye Ford; devoted cousins, Marc (Queenia) Myers, Camille Myers and Samia (Dniro) Martin, great aunts and uncles, cousins, the Westmoreland Family, other relatives and friends.
