Sampson Williams was born December 14, 1952 in Robertson County, Tennessee. He was one of five boys born to Henrietta and Fletcher Williams. He departed this life September 8, 2024 at home. He attended Robertson County Schools. He farmed alongside his father and four brothers. He enjoyed many different sports cars in his time. He piloted everything from the Plymouth Superbird to Pontiac's iconic Tran am.

He married Denise Bell Williams in the late 80's to early 90's. He drove many years commercially from coast to coast with his wife and son. He retired from trucking in 2000. His last run was Nashville to Atlanta.

He was beloved by his grandson, Lance Kendrick Williams, Jr. whom he spent time with from birth. Sampson enjoyed his earthly time and devoted it to his family and friends.

In addition to his mother, father and wife, he was preceded in death by his brothers, Larry Williams and Cecil Williams; three uncles and one aunt, Lockade Utley, Bill Taylor, LC Williams and R D Williams.

Sampson leaves to cherish his memories and legacy: one son, Lance Williams, Sr.; one grandson, Lance Kendrick Williams, Jr.; two brothers, David Randolph and L V Williams; one niece and one great-niece, Contessa Watkins and Denisha Allen; two great-nephews, Brayden Watkins and Bronson Watkins; two close cousins, David Wayne Bell and John Utley; a host of cousins and life long friends and trucker buddies.
