

W. D. CROWDER FUNRAL HOME

1800 John L. Patterson Street
Springfield, Tennessee 37172
615-384-7984 Fax 615-384-7916

Ruby Jean Woodfork was born August 22, 1947 to the late Dap Hayes, and the late Ocie Lean Hayes of Wingo Kentucky. She departed this life and entered her eternal rest on February 13, 2023.

Ruby accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. She served faithfully on the Mother Board for many years at The Greater Saint Paul Missionary Baptist Church.

She was affectionately known as Granny Ruby, Moma Ruby, Muda Ruby, Aunt Ruby, and Mrs. Ruby. She was a homemaker and ensured she made her house a home. Ruby was all about her family, you would always see her with her kids or her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She had a love for turtles and you would often find her talking and watching TV with her beloved little big friend, Sadie, the turtle. Ruby had a sweet tooth even tho she was a diabetic and she had a way of getting what she wanted with that beautiful innocent smile. Many did not know she was a comedian, if you caught her on a good day you may get a free comedy show.

Ruby was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Forrest D. Woodfork Sr. To this union, three children were born. She leaves to cherish her memories her three children: Lillian WoodforkPayne, Forrest Woodfork Jr., and Donald Ray Woodfork; a brother, Charles Hayes Sr. (Lucielle), and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, other family members and friends.

Viewing, Visitation and Funeral, Saturday, February 18, 2023 at Greater St. Paul Baptist Church in Wingo, Kentucky with Pastor Tyrone Hayes, Officiant, and Bishop Charles Dunbar, Eulogist; Interment was in Oak Rest Cemetery in Mayfield, KY.