Brenda Neblett Dunn was born in Robertson County, Tennessee on June 18, 1951 to the late Robert Neblett and Alo Bernice Crocker Neblett. In her home surrounded by her loved ones on September 28, 2021 she "Moved Out To Her Brand New Life".

Brenda was a 1969 graduate of East Robertson High School. During this time she was the first person of color to be inducted into the National Honor Society. She also held a National Office in the Future Home Makers of America. Brenda paved the road for so many during her high school years. She was also a dedicated employee of Berry Plastics in Franklin, KY for over 30 years.

Brenda married Horace Dunn Jr. and to this union two beautiful daughters were born. Brenda was a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church. She served in several positions but her calling was Vacation Bible School because of her love for the youth. Her passion for gospel music and willingness to minister through song made her the glue that held the choir together. She held the position of Choir President for over 10 years.

Brenda is preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Alo Bernice Neblett; her three brothers, Nathaniel, Danny Lee, and Chris Neblett. She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters, Tabitha (Michael) Blakemore and Christina Dunn; three granddaughters, Alo Brendaye Dunn, Breneasha "Shae" Dunn, and Da'Terria "DeeDee" Dunn; one grandson, Denzel Blakemore; one great grandson, Amir Taylor; one sister, Ann (Steve) Colbert; one cousin/brother, Marshall Holland. A very devoted cousin, Tony Trice; special friend, Benny Bradley. She also leaves to cherish aunts, cousins, nieces, and nephews, other family and friends.
