

1800 John L. Patterson Street
Springfield, Tennessee 37172
615-384-7984 Fax 615-384-7916

ARRANGEMENTS: CELEBRATION OF LIFE SERVICE, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2024 AT 12:00 PM, FRIENDSHIP MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH, 2871 FRIENDSHIP ROAD, CROSS PLAINS, TENNESSEE.

On September 6, 2024 God welcomed Jason Tyler Groves home for eternal rest. Jason Tyler Groves was born on November 25, 1972 and was raised by his mother, Willie Sue Groves and father, James Terry Groves in Cross Plains, TN. He was the big brother to Terry Allen Groves (Tammy Groves) and little brother to Arneal Strain (Kim Strain).

Jason was able to meet his biological father, Jerry and biological sisters, Takiyah (TJ) and Jerri (Coco), as well as aunts, uncles, cousins in 2012 and thereafter formed a special relationship between them which he would cherish for the rest of his life.

Jason attended East Robertson Schools throughout his childhood and graduated from White House High School in May of 1992. Jason received an Army ROTC Scholarship for having achieved a meritorious record in academic studies, extracurricular participation, and athletic activities.

Jason furthered his education in Bowling Green, KY, attending Western Kentucky University where he received his Associate of General Studies degree in August of 1997.

Jason worked his entire life thereafter until he was no longer able to work due to health issues.

Jason was a father of two, Myreisha Denae` Groves and Cason Tyler Groves as well as being a father figure to Brooke Byrum (Denae's sister) and served as a grandfather of five, Laiken and Tyler Groves, Grayson, Ashtyn and Mason Byrum. He was also the beloved uncle of ten nieces and nephews; D.A., Taylor, Shaun, Kylah, Kaden, Kamauri Groves and T'mara, Jahari, Nia and Darnell of Minnesota.

Jason was preceded in death by his father, James Terry Groves. Jason was well known for his love and kindness to everyone he came across. He knew how to put a smile on everyone's face like the comedian that he was. Jason enjoyed fishing, attending ALL the cookouts, he loved food and loved being with his friends and family, those who loved him most. When he was not spending his time with his children and grandchildren he enjoyed spending time with his special friend, Chastity Alvis.

You will be missed dearly, Dad.